

California Legal RAG

Second Validation Set

50 additional test questions

Constitution Questions

1. How does the initiative power work?
2. How does the referendum process work?
3. How are state officers subject to recall?
4. How does a bill become law?
5. When does an urgency statute take effect?
6. How does the Governor's veto power work?
7. How is judicial power vested in California courts?
8. What is the requirement for a free school in each district?
9. How does the State School Fund work and how is it apportioned?
10. What textbook responsibilities does the State Board of Education have?
11. What rules govern water resources and beneficial use?
12. What powers do local governments or counties have?
13. What limits apply to property taxes?
14. How do appropriations limits on government work?
15. When is voter approval required for local taxes?
16. What rules apply to assessments or property-related fees?
17. What restrictions apply to public finance or gifts of public funds?
18. How may motor vehicle revenues be used for transportation purposes?
19. How is redistricting authority structured?
20. When is voter approval required for low-rent housing projects?

Education Questions

1. How is the state's policy against discrimination in public education defined?
2. What remedies or complaint mechanisms exist for unlawful discrimination in schools?
3. What protections exist for student groups covered by educational equity provisions?
4. How are English learner policy and support for immigrant children addressed?
5. How do the EL Roadmap and statewide implementation planning work?
6. What powers does the State Board of Education have to adopt rules for public schools?

7. How do waivers work and who may grant them?
8. What limits apply to waiver authority for the State Board or Department?
9. How are regulations
10. What is the Department of Education's general duty to administer or enforce education laws?
11. Are Department of Education program guidelines mandatory or advisory?
12. What duties do county superintendents have regarding supervision of schools?
13. What fiscal oversight responsibilities do county superintendents have?
14. How do school district organization or formation procedures work?
15. What provisions deal with interdistrict or interagency cooperation in education?
16. How does California participate in interstate education compacts or commissions?
17. What responsibilities exist for state educational research
18. How are instructional materials adoption and standards alignment handled?
19. What responsibilities arise when state oversight of a local educational agency is triggered?
20. How is accountability handled for fiscal distress or negative financial certifications?

Cross-Source Questions

1. How does the requirement for free schools connect to administrative and funding provisions?
2. How do equal protection principles relate to anti-discrimination provisions in education?
3. How does the creation of the State Board of Education compare with its rulemaking powers?
4. How does the framework for the Superintendent of Public Instruction compare with the office's operational duties?
5. How do protections for local government structure interact with county education oversight duties?
6. How might tax limits affect the practical operation of education governance and funding rules?
7. How do voter-control provisions over taxes and assessments relate to state education finance administration?
8. How does the public finance framework relate to rules on educational expenditures or administration?
9. How do education goals and equity provisions work together to support student rights?
10. Which non-education constitutional provisions are most relevant when interpreting education governance statutes?